

There are no translations available.

"Every Wednesday night, I go to the Language Café with my Mum to help her run it. I serve the tea, coffee and juice and I give out the biscuits.

The café is great for your languages, French and English. If I ask an English person if they would like a drink, I say it in French and if they're French, I do it in English. I speak two languages so it's easy for me. My Mum is the teacher of the Language Café & she helps people to learn English and French. Everybody talks a lot and sometimes my Dad comes to help us. The café is in Civray and everybody has a lot of fun for one hour."

Anna Morris, age 9.