The project is going to use 3 different informal language learning methodologies

- traditional language cafe (a number of native speakers facilitating a learning sesion with a group of language learners)
- tandem (R) language cafe (two native speakers of different tongue which learn each others language by exchange)
- cyber language cafe (online sessions based on teleconference and chat rooms).