

One more participant was kind enough to give us an interview about her experience on the Language Café at "Meeting Point", Leeds. She spoke about how she was afraid to speak English and how this process helped her feel confident.